

MEMORIAL DAY CEREMONIES TO BE MOST IMPRESSIVE YET HELD

Music, Oratory, Flowers and Parade Will Make Occasion Memorable in Honolulu

Honolulu tomorrow will witness probably the largest and most complete observance of Memorial Day in the history of the city. Nearly a score of organizations, aside from the grizzled veterans of the great war, will march in line and attend services at Nuuanu cemetery in honor of those who gave their lives that America might be a true United States.

Although their ranks have been thinned by the loss of two comrades during the last year, the members of the George W. De Long Post, G. A. R., will ride in the parade and attend the services 15 strong. As one veteran said today, the post members will be "every bit as lively as a year ago."

The following orders govern the order of the parade, which begins at 10 o'clock:

1. The Memorial Day parade, the 30th instant, under the auspices of the Geo. W. De Long Post, G. A. R., will start at 10 a. m. from the corner of Bishop and King streets on the latter.

2. Line of March: "To Fort, to Vineyard to Nuuanu avenue, north to the cemetery. Each organization to maintain a distance of 30 paces from the one that precedes it.

3. Formation: Column of platoons. 4. Order of march and stations:

(a) Mounted police, on King street, facing northwest; head at Bishop street, at 9:45 a. m.

(b) Grand marshal and aides.

(c) Band of 2nd U. S. Infantry.

(d) 1st Battalion, 2nd Infantry, Capt. C. L. McKain, on King street, facing northwest, head at Alakea street, at 9:45 a. m.

(e) National Guard of Hawaii, Col. C. S. Lincoln; and Naval Militia, Lieut. H. E. Lambert, in palace grounds, in mass, facing south, in readiness to follow the 1st Battalion, 2nd Infantry, at 9:45 a. m.

(f) Kamehameha Cadets, Capt. A. S. Booth, on Richards street, north of King, facing south, head of column at King street, in time to follow the National Guard of Hawaii.

(g) Honolulu School for Boys, Capt. Parker Widemann, on Richards street, south of King, facing north, head of column at King street, following the Kamehameha Cadets.

(h) Geo. W. De Long Post, G. A. R., chairman W. L. Eaton, on Mililani street, facing north, head at King street, to follow the Honolulu School for Boys.

(i) I. O. Red Men, L. A. Perry, on Library street, facing south, head at King street.

(j) Spanish War Veterans, Jas. T. McDonald, on Punchbowl street, north of King, facing south, head at King street.

(k) Veterans of Foreign Wars, Jas. A. Phillips, on Punchbowl street, south of King, facing north, head at King street.

(l) Boy Scouts, Sergt. Barry, on King street, facing west, head at Punchbowl street.

(m) Carriage of Governor Pinkham, followed by the general public.

CHURCHES HONOR HERO DEAD IN THEIR SERVICES

Memorial Sunday is Observed From Pulpit of Churches With Grateful Tributes

Several of Honolulu's churches yesterday observed Memorial Day, fitting tributes being paid in sermon and song to those who gave up their lives for the nation during the great war.

The 15 living members of the George W. De Long Post, G. A. R., attended in a body a special memorial service held in the Methodist church last night, the occasion being distinguished by martial and impressive. Their ranks were reinforced by the local post, Spanish War Veterans, and the members of the boys' clubs of the intermediate department of the Y. M. C. A. A large American flag, draped gracefully back of the pulpit, formed the only decoration.

Makes Lincoln Example.

Rev. L. L. Looibourrow, in an interesting sermon, told of Abraham Lincoln's use of the Bible, his topic being, "Where Greatness Became Great." He told of the letter which Lincoln once wrote to a friend, in which he said, "I am profitably engaged in reading the Bible. Take all of this book upon reason that you can, and the balance on faith, and you will live and die a better man."

Mr. Looibourrow continued:

"No other American statesman quotes so largely from the Bible in his speeches and state papers. After 1858 no address is preserved that does not draw from that source. One may find a half dozen direct or indirect Scripture quotations on a single page. And some of his state documents draw both thought and language from the Bible, and move on its high level of moral and religious feeling. So noticeable is this that Richard Watson Gilder long ago called Father Abraham 'a statesman with the heart of a prophet.'"

Views on Moral Questions.

"His views on moral questions were determined by the Bible. So it was with slavery. 'I know that there is a God, and that he hates injustice and slavery. I see the storm coming, and I know that His hand is in it. If he has a place and a work for me—and I think he has—I believe I am ready.' Central Union and the Christian church also had appropriate services yesterday in recognition of Memorial Day.

Shafter Observes Fittingly.

Services in the Fort Shafter aerodrome last night were attended by more than 1000 persons, a majority being enlisted men and their families. Under the direction of Sgt. Frank Leigh a program of special music was rendered. A pretty feature of the service was a series of stereopticon views showing some of the important battles participated in by the 2d Infantry, beginning with the Revolutionary period and closing with the Spanish War. This was followed by a picture representing the Nation before her altar and flag. A tablet bearing the names of those who have died during the year was also shown, after which a prayer was said and the organ sounded taps.

The service was concluded with an address by Chaplain William Reese Scott, 2d Infantry.

GOVERNOR NAMES WILL WAYNE AS HIS SECRETARY

Announcement was made from the governor's office this morning that Will Wayne, now with the department of public works, has been appointed secretary to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of George R. Clark several weeks ago. The post has been vacant since Clark became clerk of the United States court.

Wayne is now clerk of the Oahu loan fund commission and holds several other offices connected with the public works department's varied activities. He is a newspaper man of wide experience and has been a resident of Honolulu for the past three years, coming here in 1913 from the San Francisco Chronicle to become city editor of the Star-Bulletin. He left that position to handle theatrical publicity in Honolulu and was so successful in publicity work that he became secretary of the Mid-Pacific Carnival and had much to do with the success of the fete during the year he was connected with it. He has a wide acquaintance in the city, a Democrat in politics, and it is expected that as the governor's secretary he will successfully fill the position requiring tact, energy and responsibility.

MANOA PROWLER IS SCARED AWAY AT LYMER HOME

Manoa women who are taking revolver lessons from Captain of Detectives McDuffie to defend themselves against the "Manoa prowler" have additional reason this morning to perfect their marksmanship, for last night the prowler was abroad again.

A Japanese man and wife, caretakers on the W. B. Lymer premises, about midnight dimly saw a man at their window, trying to get into the servants' quarters. The Lymer home was not occupied over Sunday. The Lymer are on the mainland and friends of theirs who have the house were spending the week-end on Tantalus. The Japanese man got a pistol and fired to frighten the would-be intruder, and when with him and his wife added their voices to the report of the gun, they succeeded in sending the prowler away on the run.

A report was made to the police station and officers sent to the scene. There was small chance of getting the man, however.

This afternoon the Manoa women who are taking revolver lessons will have their second practice. About 15 took the first lesson under Capt. McDuffie.

The men of Manoa still adhere to their plan of getting a bloodhound or some other sort of dog here which can be used to run down the prowlers. They expect to import the canine some time this summer.

LITTLE CHANGE IN PRICES OF STOCKS IS SEEN

Light trading with few, if any, features and accompanied by neither advances nor declines marked the day in the stock market. In volume the trading reached only 2300 shares.

Ewa was the one exception in the stocks traded in to show an advance and sold up to 34 3/4. Oahu again closed at $23.75, and Oahu was firm all day at $23.75. Waialua had recovered its strength and continued at $38.

Tomorrow, being Memorial Day, no session of the stock market will be held.

PUNAHOU SWIMS HELD THIS WEEK

The schedule for the competition for the Thurston swimming medals, to be held this week in the Punahou swimming tank, is as follows: The girls will have Monday and Wednesday and the boys Thursday and Friday. On the first day both the open and the novice class will compete in the 50-yard swim, 50-yard back stroke and plunge and on the second day will come the 100-yard swims and the dives. This schedule permits all students to compete in the events of the pentathlon without fear of exhaustion. A large entry list in both the open and the novice class for boys and girls attests the new interest in swimming which the Thurston medals have created.

FORMER OFFICER WILL NOT HAVE ANY REHEARING

Civil Service Commission Declines to Reopen Case on Petition of Jesse Gray

Jesse Gray, Wahiawa police officer, was this noon denied a rehearing of the charges against him by the Civil Service Commission. After reading a summary of the additional testimony he has declared in the petition for a rehearing that he could offer, it was decided that there was nothing to warrant a re-opening of the case and the petition was denied.

Comment by the commissioners on the testimony to be offered was to the effect that it was but a repetition of what had been offered before. There is nothing here to disprove the charge that he accepted money for the protection of the chefta games," said the chairman of the commission, Lorrin Andrews, as the reading was finished.

"Besides we are in the position of the sheriff—to decide whether or not Gray is the right sort of man for his position on the force, not to decide whether or not he is guilty of a crime, that will all be settled by the grand jury, according to the city attorney."

A. M. Brown, city attorney, spoke when the last paragraph of Gray's petition had been read and asked permission to make a word of comment on it. "Gray came to me with blood in his eye the day after the newspapers published this petition and wanted to know where the last paragraph, that declaring he told Deputy Sheriff H. H. Plumer he believed there was chefta in operation in Wahiawa and asked his help in closing up the bank only to be denied, had come from," he said. "He wouldn't believe it was in the petition until I showed it to him and then he declared it was all false, that he never had made any such statement. The last I saw of him he was bound for the office of the attorneys who drew up the petition for him."

Tomorrow will be a holiday for postoffice employees. One delivery only will be made by the carriers. The stamp, general delivery, registry and parcel post windows will be closed after 10 in the morning, opening at 8. A collection will be made from street letter boxes in time for the Kinau and Mikahala.

Metropolitan Meat Market will close to 10:30 tomorrow morning (Memorial Day). Regular deliveries will be made. Please order early.
